Short courses

How do I take an online multiple-choice exam?

Each short course has an online multiple choice exam. For your short course to be credited toward a Certificate, you are required to pass the exam.

The 20 question online multiple-choice exam is designed to facilitate a transfer of knowledge and contribute to your ability to apply your learning. The passed exam contributes to one of the Governance Institute's certificates.

To access the exam, you will need your username and password which you created at your course registration. Please follow the prompts below:

- From the Governance Institute homepage, www.governanceinstitute.com.au, click on Online Learning Centre.
- Enter your user name (email address) and password.

The exam is included in your course fee. The exam is marked automatically online.

The pass mark for each exam is 70 per cent and the grade is a pass or fail.

This exam will be available to you for a period of 21 days from the day of the face-to-face course or the day after registration in the online mode.

The exam takes approximately one hour to complete. The exam is not timed and as you progress through the exam, you may return to complete it, at any time.

Your answers are saved automatically. Press Submit when you have answered the 20 questions.

You have access to the course materials while you undertake the exam, but we do expect that you will complete the exam yourself, unassisted by other people.

Your course registration includes two (2) attempts at the online exam for the short course.

The second attempt becomes available if the pass mark is not achieved at the first attempt.

Should you be unsuccessful after two attempts at the exam, please contact your Governance Institute state office to re-register for the online exam, a fee of $85 will apply per course – this will provide you with another two (2) attempts to undertake the exam.

Certificates

Which of my courses are eligible for a Certificate?

For one of your courses to count towards a Certificate, it must be listed as one of the compulsory or elective courses for that Certificate and you must pass the online exam.

To graduate from a Governance Institute Certificate, you are required to complete and pass the online multiple-choice exam for each of the six courses, within the same 12 month period. This 12 month time-frame starts when you pass your first course exam. After you have passed the exams for each of the five additional courses within this time frame, you will automatically graduate from a Governance Institute Certificate.

A short course completed outside of the previous 12 months cannot be counted as an eligible course for Certificate graduation or count as an exemption towards another Certificate.

Participants who do not complete all six courses within the specified 12 month completion timeframe, due to extenuating circumstances, will be permitted to request an extension from the National Manager, Professional Development. Requests must be received via email to training@governanceinstitute.com.au prior to the expiry of the 12 month time-frame. Following consideration of the request, Governance Institute will provide a written decision regarding the extension to the participant within 3 business days.

Please note that extensions will only be granted in circumstances of personal illness or injury, family illness, injury or bereavement or excessive work commitments. Either medical or employer documentary evidence must be provided for this extension to be granted.

If your course exam pass/s date expired over 12 months ago or you are unable to complete the required study within the 12 month time-frame, please contact us at training@governanceinstitute.com.au

Do I receive prior study recognition when I enrol in another Governance Institute Certificate?

When you graduate from a Governance Institute Certificate, two of your completed courses will be available for you to select as exemptions if you enrol in another Certificate.

There is a maximum of two courses you can select to use as exemptions.

We strongly recommend you look at the compulsory course requirements when you enrol in a new Certificate to ensure you select two courses that are most relevant to your new enrolment. For example, if the Certificate you are enrolling in requires you to complete five compulsory and one elective course, then at least one of your exemptions should be a compulsory course.

Note: You must graduate from your first certificate before enrolment in the second certificate can be activated. At this point your two exemptions will be applied to the second certificate enrolment.

To utilise your two exemptions you must have passed the exam for each course within the previous 12 months.

How do I transfer between Certificates?

At any point of your study you may transfer from one Certificate to another. The eligible courses you have previously completed will be transferred into the new Certificate, subject to the new Certificate requirements.

To transfer between Certificates, please contact Governance Institute on 1800 251 849 or at training@governanceinstitute.com.au

If I have completed a CPA (or other external professional qualification) can I receive any exemptions for a Certificate?

Any prior external learning is not recognised in the completion of a Governance Institute Certificate.
